THE FUTURE IS FEMININE

If the three FIFA world championships this year, it was not unreasonable to expect the greatest attention to be fixed on the Women's World Cup in Sweden. Not only because this event takes place every four years (while the two youth championships are held every two years), but because this year's finals were anticipated as the consecration of the success which the women's game enjoyed at the inaugural Championship in China in 1991.

The predominant impression from Sweden is that women's football is very alive, very well, and growing fast. All the positive features of the China tournament were in evidence again, notably the spirit of fair play, the will to attack, and the uninhibited enjoyment of the game. The future is feminine. Nobody in the worldwide football community can afford to be left behind any longer as the phenomenon of women's football continues to gather pace.

I n'aurait pas été illogique d'estimer que, parmi les trois championnats du monde de la FIFA disputés cette année, la plus grande attention aurait été accordée à la Coupe du Monde de Football Féminin Suède 1995 non seulement parce qu'elle n'a lieu que tous les quatre ans (alors que les championnats juniors se déroulent tous les deux ans), mais parce que la compétition finale de cette année devait confirmer le succès qu'a connu le football féminin lors de sa première Coupe du Monde Chine '91.

L'impression dominante en Suède est la vitalité du football féminin qui, par ailleurs, se porte à merveille et ne cesse de croître. Une fois de plus, tous les aspects positifs du tournoi de Chine étaient au rendez-vous. Citons par exemple l'esprit de fair-play, une volonté offensive et un enthousiasme absolu pour le jeu. L'avenir est féminin. Aucune association nationale dans la communauté du football mondial ne peut se permettre de rester à la traîne alors que le football féminin poursuit son irrésistible ascension.

D e los tres campeonatos mundiales de la FIFA que se celebran este año, el que mayor interés suscitó fue, sin duda alguna, el Mundial Femenino en Suecia. No sólo porque se celebra cada cuatro años (mientras que los dos mundiales juveniles tienen lugar cada dos años), sino también porque en el torneo final de este año se anticipaba la consagración del éxito que el fútbol femenino había experimentado en el campeonato inaugural en 1991.

La impresión predominante en Suecia fue que el fútbol femenino es muy activo, entretenido y que progresó continuamente. Se volvieron a evidenciar todos los aspectos positivos del torneo de China, particularmente el espíritu de fair play, la proyección ofensiva y la alegría pura por el juego. El futuro es femenino. Nadie, en la comunidad mundial del fútbol, puede darse el lujo de quedar atrás a medida que el fenómeno del fútbol femenino continúa ganando terreno.

Von den drei FIFA-Wettbewerben in diesem Jahr wird verständlicherweise der Frauenfussball-Weltmeisterschaft in Schweden wohl am meisten Aufmerksamkeit zuteil; nicht nur, weil dieser Anlass im Vierjahresrhythmus stattfindet (im Gegensatz zu den beiden Jugendwettbewerben, die alle zwei Jahre ausgetragen werden), sondern weil die diesjährige Endrunde als vorläufiger Höhepunkt der erfolgreichen Entwicklung des Frauenfussballs seit der ersten Weltmeisterschaft 1991 in China grosse Erwartungen geweckt hatte.

In Schweden bestätigte sich der Eindruck, dass der Frauenfussball sehr lebendig ist und über ein enormes Wachstumspotential verfügt. Alle positiven Erinnerungen an die WM in China wurden aufgefrischt: der Sinn für Fairplay, der Willen zum Angriff sowie die ungebremste Freude am Spiel. Die Zukunft ist weiblich. In der globalen Fussballgemeinschaft kann sich niemand mehr erlauben, vor diesem Phänomen, das immer weitere Kreise zieht, die Augen zu verschließen.

Norway at last

High expectations – positive results

Success hankers after affirmation. Because the dazzling debut in China had been such a triumph in 1991, expectations for the 2nd Women's World Cup were running high. We can say from the start that a comparison of the two events gave rise to positive results, not least among the referees where women were in the majority.

Some of the terms and conditions had been changed this time: 90 minutes of play instead of 80 in China, a full group of 20 players instead of 18, three points for a win, and the experiment with time-out. Making a direct statistical comparison is therefore a little more difficult, but in spite of these slight changes an upward trend was, on the whole, detectable. One of the main motivations was obviously the prospect of a place in Atlanta 1996. The top eight teams from this World Cup (see inset on next page) will be able to give another demonstration of the direction women's football is taking at next year's Olympic Games in Atlanta.

Un succès bien confirmé. Il va de soi qu'après une première aussi prestigieuse que Chine '91, les espérances pour la deuxième Coupe du Monde de Football Féminin aient été haut placées. Effectivement, les résultats de la deuxième édition ont été plus que positifs également du point de vue des arbitres qui étaient en majorité du sexe féminin.

Il faut également mentionner que certaines conditions ont été modifiées – 90 minutes au lieu de 80 lors de Chine '91, un cadre de 20 joueuses au lieu de 18, trois points attribués pour une victoire ainsi que l'expérience relative au hors-jeu. Il est difficile d'établir des statistiques directes, toutefois, malgré ces modifications, la tendance générale a été à la hausse. Il est certain que la qualification pour les Jeux Olympiques d'Atlanta en 1996 à l'issue de la compétition a certainement contribué au succès de cette Coupe du Monde. Les huit meilleures équipes de ce tournoi (voir article ci-après) montreront l'année prochaine lors des J.O. la direction dans laquelle elles désirent établir leur discipline.

Siempre es necesario confirmar los éxitos. De tal forma que, después del grandioso primer campeonato de 1991 en China, había grandes expectativas puestas en la 2ª Copa Mundial Femenina. De antemano, la comparación entre los dos torneos arroja un resultado positivo en todos los aspectos, incluido el arbitraje, ya que en Suecia las mujeres constituyeron la mayoría de los directores de juego.

Dignas de mención son algunas de las modificaciones que se constataron, a saber: se incrementó el tiempo de juego de 80 a 90 minutos, se aumentó asimismo el número de jugadoras de 18 a 20, se concedieron 3 puntos por victoria y se llevaron a cabo experimentos con el tiempo muerto. Estos cambios dificultan una comparación estadística, pero, en cualquier caso, se constata una tendencia ascendente en el juego femenino, y con razón, ya que el torneo vino a ser la eliminatoria para Atlanta '96. Las ocho mejores selecciones de este Mundial femenino (ver recuadro) demostrarán en Atlanta cuál es la trayectoria del fútbol femenino.

Erfolge rufen nach Bestätigung. Nach der glanzvollen Premiere 1991 in China waren die Erwartungen für die 2. Frauenfussball-WM hoch angesetzt. Der Vergleich, das darf im voraus gesagt werden, fiel positiv aus, nicht zuletzt auch bei den Spielleitern, wo die Frauen die Mehrheit stellten.

Zu erwähnen ist, dass einige Rahmenbedingungen geändert wurden – 90 Minuten Spielzeit statt 80 wie in China, Kader von 20 Spielerinnen statt 18, drei Punkte für einen Sieg sowie die Tests mit der Auszeit. Ein direkter statistischer Vergleich ist somit schwieriger, doch liess sich trotz dieser etwas anderen Voraussetzungen generell ein Aufwärtstrend verzeichnen. Mit ein Grund dafür war wohl die Aussicht auf einen Startplatz bei Atlanta 1996. Die besten acht Teams dieser WM (siehe Kasten) werden im kommenden Jahr bei Olympia zeigen, in welche Richtung der Frauensport geht.

Lucky Brazil

Roseli's goal for Brazil against Sweden landed Brazil among the eight finalists of the first ever Women's Olympic Football Tournament to be held in Atlanta next year. The South Americans had a little help from their English friends because England, in spite of having reached the quarter finals, cannot itself qualify for the Olympic Games; England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland compete jointly under the designation "Great Britain". Brazil, as the best of the four lowest ranking teams, will therefore be making their way to the USA in 1996.

Those that have qualified for the Women's Olympic Tournament in Atlanta in 1996 are: USA (host), Germany, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, PR China, Japan and Brazil.

Le but de l'attaquante Roseli contre la Suède a hissé le Brésil parmi les huit finalistes du premier Tournoi Olympique de Football Féminin qui se déroulera l'année prochaine dans le cadre des Jeux Olympiques d'Atlanta. C'est l'équipe britannique qui, en se qualifiant pour les quarts de finale, a permis aux Sud-Américaines de se qualifier pour Atlanta. En effet, l'Angleterre ne peut pour des raisons sportives participer comme seule représentante d'un pays. C'est donc une délégation commune d'athlètes de la Grande-Bretagne, c'est-à-dire l'Angleterre, l'Ecosse, le Pays de Galles et l'Irlande du Nord qui se rendra à Atlanta. Par conséquent, le Brésil, meilleure équipe parmi les quatre à avoir quitté le championnat de Suède avant les quarts de finale pourra, ayant obtenu la place de l'Angleterre, se rendre aux USA en 1996.

Ainsi, les équipes qualifiées pour le Tournoi Olympique de Football Féminin sont: les USA (pays organisateur), l'Allemagne, la Suède, la Norvège, le Danemark, la République Populaire de Chine, le Japon et le Brésil.

El gol de la delantera Roseli contra Suecia significó al mismo tiempo la clasificación de Brasil entre las ocho finalistas del Torneo Olímpico de Fútbol femenino en Atlanta, el cual se celebrará por primera vez. Las sudamericanas fueron respaldadas por Inglaterra, la cual no obstante clasificarse para los cuartos de final en Suecia, no podrá participar en los JJOO por razones deportivo-políticas (Inglaterra, Escocia, Gales e Irlanda del Norte participan bajo la denominación «Gran Bretaña»). De tal suerte, Brasil –la mejor selección entre las cuatro eliminadas– podrá viajar a EEUU en 1996.

Para el Torneo Olímpico de Fútbol femenino Atlanta 1996, se clasificaron los siguientes equipos. EEUU (anfitrión), Alemania, Suecia, Noruega, Dinamarca, RP China, Japón y Brasil.

Der Treffer seiner Stürmerin Roseli gegen Schweden brachte Brasilien unter die acht Finalisten des erstmals stattfindenden Olympischen Fussballturniers der Frauen in Atlanta. Schützenhilfe erhielten die Südamerikanerinnen von England, das in Schweden die Qualifikation für die Viertelfinals schaffte, aber aus sportpolitischen Gründen nicht als Einzelvertretung eines Landes bei Olympia dabei ist (England, Schottland, Wales und Nordirland werden jeweils durch eine gemeinsame Delegation unter der Bezeichnung 'Grossbritannien' repräsentiert). Somit wird Brasilien als beste der vier ausgeschiedenen Mannschaften 1996 in die USA reisen.

Qualifiziert für das Olympische Frauenfussballturnier Atlanta 1996: USA (Gastgeber), Deutschland, Schweden, Norwegen, Dänemark, die VR China, Japan und Brasilien.
